

DYLAN

Lolium perenne

- Very high wear tolerance
- The best visual merit during summer
- Very fine and dense
- The new PRG leading variety!

Number 1

Only few varieties stand out from the majority - DYLAN does! With the number 1 top score for 3 out of 4 features and a more than good performance for the other features, DYLAN is facing a brilliant career.

Perfect for all uses

DYLAN is not only an excellent sports variety, but also for home lawns, parks and prestige ornamental turf.

12 months a year

DYLAN is remarkable with an excellent wear tolerance during the winter season, primordial for sport pitches. With a summer aspect better than all other varieties, the versatility of DYLAN is tremendous.
